Memorandum and Articles of Association

The following summarises certain provisions of the Company's Memorandum and Articles of Association and applicable English Law. The summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Companies Act 1985 of Great Britain ("the Act"), as amended, and the Company's Articles of Association.

Objects and purposes

The Company is incorporated under the name Michael Page International plc and is registered in England and Wales with registered number 3310225. The Memorandum of Association of the Company provides that the Company's principal object is to carry on business as a general commercial company and to carry out the other objects more particularly set out in the Memorandum of Association of the Company.

Share capital

The authorised share capital of the Company currently consists of 571,250,000 ordinary shares of 1p each. As at 31 December 2007, 327,393,734 ordinary shares have been allotted, called-up and fully paid (see Note 18, Notes to the Accounts).

Alteration of capital

The Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution:

- (a) increase its share capital by new shares of such amount as the resolution prescribes;
- (b) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares;
- (c) subject to the provisions of the Act, sub-divide its shares, or any of them, into shares of a smaller amount than is fixed by the memorandum;
- (d) determine that, as between the shares resulting from such a sub-division, any of them may have any preference or advantage as compared with the others; and
- (e) cancel shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person, and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled.

Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Company may by special resolution reduce its share capital, any capital redemption reserve and any share premium account, in any way.

Purchase of own shares

Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Company may purchase its own shares, including redeemable shares. The Company proposes to renew its authority to purchase its own shares for another year in item 11 of the Annual General Meeting notice.

General meetings and voting rights

The Directors may call general meetings whenever and at whatever time and location they so determine. Subject to the provisions of the Act, an annual general meeting and an extraordinary general meeting called to pass a special resolution shall be called by at least 21 clear days' notice, and all other extraordinary general meetings shall be called by at least 14 days' notice. Two persons entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted shall be a quorum.

The Articles of Association provide that subject to any rights or restrictions attached to any shares, on a show of hands every member shall have one vote, and on a poll every member shall have one vote for every share of which he is a holder. On a poll, votes may be given either personally or by proxy or (in the case of a corporate member) by a duly authorised representative. No member shall be entitled to vote in respect of any share held by him if any call or other sum payable by him to the Company remains unpaid.

If a member or any person appearing to be interested in shares held by a member has been duly served with a notice under Section 793 of the Companies Act 2006 (previously Section 212 of the Act) and is in default for the prescribed period in supplying to the Company information thereby required, unless the Directors otherwise determine, the member shall not be entitled in respect of the default shares to be present or to vote (either in person or by representative or proxy) at any general or class meeting of the Company or on any poll or to exercise any other right confirmed by membership in relation to such meeting or poll. In certain circumstances, any dividend due in respect of the default shares shall be withheld and certain certificated transfers may be refused.

A member entitled to more than one vote need not, if he votes, use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way. A proxy need not be a member. A member may appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion. This does not preclude the member from attending and voting at the meeting or at any adjournment of it.

Limitations and non-resident or foreign shareholders

English law treats those persons who hold the shares and are neither UK residents nor nationals in the same way as UK residents or nationals. They are free to own, vote on and transfer any shares they hold.

Variation of rights

Subject to the Act, if at any time the capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class of may be varied either:

- (a) in such manner (if any) as may be provided by those rights; or
- (b) in the absence of any such provision, with the consent in writing of the holders of three-quarters in nominal value of the issued shares of the class or with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of the class

but not otherwise, and may be so varied either whilst the Company is a going concern or during, or in contemplation of, a winding-up. At every such separate general meeting the necessary quorum shall be at least two persons together holding or representing by proxy at least one-third in nominal value of the issued shares of the class (but at any adjourned meeting any holder of shares of the class present in or by proxy shall be a quorum). Unless otherwise expressly provided by the rights attached to any class of shares, those rights shall be deemed not to be varied by the purchase by the Company of any of its own shares.

Dividend rights

Holders of the Company's ordinary shares may by ordinary resolution declare dividends but no such dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the Directors. If, in the opinion of the Directors, the profits of the Company available for distribution justify such payments, the Directors may, from time to time, pay interim dividends on the shares of such amounts and on such dates and in respect of such periods as they think fit. The profits of the Company available for distribution and resolved to be distributed shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid up on the shares during any portion of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid. The members may, at a general meeting declaring a dividend upon the recommendation of the Directors, direct that it shall be satisfied wholly or fully by the distribution of assets.

No dividend shall be paid otherwise than out of profits available for distribution as specified under the provisions of the Act.

Any dividend unclaimed after a period of twelve years from the date of declaration of such dividend shall, if the Directors so resolve, be forfeited and shall revert to the Company.

Calls on shares

Subject to the terms of allotment, the Directors may make calls upon members in respect of any amounts unpaid on their shares (whether in respect of nominal value or premium) and each member shall pay to the Company as required by the notice the amount called on his shares.

Transfer of shares

Any member may transfer all or any of his shares in certificated form by instrument of transfer in the usual common form or in any other form which the Directors may approve. The transfer instrument shall be signed by or on behalf of the transferor and, except in the case of fully-paid shares, by or on behalf of the transferee.

Where any class of share is for the time being a participating security, title to shares of that class which are recorded as being held in uncertificated form, may be transferred by the relevant system concerned.

The Directors may in their absolute discretion and without giving any reason refuse to register any transfer of shares (being shares which are not fully paid or on which the Company has a lien), provided that if the share is listed on the Official List of the UK Listing Authority such refusal does not prevent dealings in the shares from taking place on an open and proper basis.

The Directors may also refuse to register a transfer of shares unless the transfer instrument:

- (a) is lodged at the registered office, or such other place as the Directors may appoint, accompanied by the relevant share certificate(s);
- (b) is in respect of only one class of share; and
- (c) is in favour of not more than four persons jointly.

The Directors of the Company may refuse to register the transfer of a share in uncertificated form to a person who is to hold it thereafter in certificated form in any case where the Company is entitled to refuse (or is excepted from the requirements) under the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001 to register the transfer; and they may refuse to register any such transfer in favour of more than four transferees.

Subject to the Uncertificated Securities Regulations, the registration of transfers of shares or of any class of shares may be suspended at such times and for such periods (not exceeding thirty days in any year) as the Directors may determine.

Directors

The Company's Articles of Association provide for a Board of Directors, consisting of (unless otherwise determined by the Company by ordinary resolution) not fewer than two Directors, who shall manage the business of the Company. The Directors may exercise all the powers of the Company, subject to the provisions of the Act, the Memorandum of Association, the Articles of Association and any directions given by special resolution. The quorum for meetings of the Directors is currently two Directors.

The Directors may delegate any of their powers to:

- (a) any managing director, any director holding any other executive office, or any other director;
- (b) any committee consisting of one or more directors and (if thought fit) one or more other persons, but a majority of members of the committee shall be directors and no resolution of the committee shall be effective unless a majority of those present when it is passed are directors; and
- (c) to any local board or agency for managing any of the affairs of the Company either in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, and such delegation may include authority to sub-delegate all or any of the powers delegated, may be subject to conditions and may be revoked or varied.

The Directors may also, by power of attorney or otherwise, appoint any person, whether nominated directly or indirectly by the Directors, to be the agent of the Company for such purposes and subject to such conditions as they think fit, and may delegate any of their powers to such an agent.

The Articles of Association place a general prohibition on a Director voting on any resolution concerning a matter in which he has, directly or indirectly, a material interest (other than an interest in shares, debentures or other securities of, or otherwise in or through the Company), unless his interest arises only because the case falls within one or more of the following:

- (a) the giving to him of a guarantee, security, or indemnity in respect of money lent to, or an obligation incurred by him for the benefit of, the Company or any of its subsidiary undertakings;
- (b) the giving to a third party of a guarantee, security, or indemnity in respect of an obligation of the Company or any of its subsidiary undertakings for which the Director has assumed responsibility in whole or in part and whether alone or jointly with others under a guarantee or indemnity or by the giving of security;
- (c) his interest arises by virtue of his being, or intending to become a participant in the underwriting or sub-underwriting of an offer of any shares in or debentures or other securities of the Company for subscription, purchase or exchange;
- (d) the resolution relates to a retirement benefits scheme which has been approved, or is conditional upon approval, by the Board of Inland Revenue for taxation purposes;
- (e) any arrangement for the benefit of the employees of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, including but without being limited to an employees' share scheme, which does not accord to him any privilege or advantage not generally accorded to employees to whom the arrangement relates;
- (f) any transaction or arrangement with any other company in which he is interested, directly or indirectly, provided that he is not the holder of or beneficially interested in at least one per cent of any class of shares of that company (or of any other company through which his interest is derived), and is not entitled to exercise at least one per cent of the voting rights available to members of the relevant company; and

(g) the purchase or maintenance for any Director or Directors of insurance against liability.

If a question arises at a Directors' meeting as to the right of a Director to vote, the question may be referred to the Chairman of the meeting (or if the Director concerned is the Chairman, to the other Directors at the meeting), and his ruling in relation to any Director (or, as the case may be, the ruling of the majority of the other Directors in relation to the Chairman) shall be final and conclusive.

The Act requires a Director of a company who is in any way interested in a contract or a proposed contract with the company to declare the nature of his interest at a meeting of the Directors of the company. The definition of "interest" now includes the interests of spouses, children, companies and trusts. Further requirements regarding the Directors' duty to declare any interests relevant to the Company and its activities are the subject of item 12 at the Annual General Meeting, a description of which is provided in the section of the Annual Report entitled "AGM Notice of Meeting".

Borrowing powers of the Directors

The Directors shall restrict the borrowings of the Company and exercise all powers of control exercisable by the Company in relation to its subsidiary undertakings so as to secure (as regards subsidiary undertakings so far as by such exercise they can secure) that the aggregate principal amount (including any premium payable on final repayment) outstanding of all money borrowed by the Group (excluding amounts borrowed by any member of the Group from any other member of the Group), shall not at any time, save with the previous sanction of an ordinary resolution of the Company, exceed an amount equal to three times the aggregate of:

- (a) the amount paid up on the share capital of the Company; and
- (b) the total of the capital and revenue reserves of the Group, including any share premium account, capital redemption reserve, capital contribution reserve and credit balance on the profit and loss account, but excluding sums set aside for taxation and amounts attributable to outside shareholders in subsidiary undertakings of the Company and deducting any debit balance on the profit and loss account, all as shown in the latest audited consolidated balance sheet and profit and loss account of the Group, but adjusted as may be necessary in respect of any variation in the paid up share capital or share premium account of the Company since the date of that balance sheet and further adjusted as may be necessary to reflect any change since that date in the companies comprising the Group.

Director's appointment and removal

At each AGM, there shall retire from office by rotation:

- (a) all Directors of the Company who held office at the time of the two preceding AGMs and who did not retire by rotation at either of them; and
- (b) such additional number of Directors as shall, when aggregated with the number of Directors retiring under paragraph (a) above, equal either one third of the number of Directors, in circumstances where the number of Directors is three or a multiple of three, or in all other circumstances, the whole number which is nearest to but does not exceed one-third of the number of Directors (the "Relevant Proportion") provided that:
 - (i) the provisions of this paragraph (b) shall only apply if the number of Directors retiring under paragraph (a) above is less than the Relevant Proportion; and
 - (ii) subject to the provisions of the Act and to the relevant provisions of these Articles of Association, the Directors to retire under this paragraph (b) shall be those who have been longest in office since their last appointment or reappointment, but as between persons who became or were last reappointed Directors on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot.

If the Company, at the meeting at which a director retires by rotation, does not fill the vacancy the retiring Director shall, if willing to act, be deemed to have been reappointed unless a resolution not to fill the vacancy or not to reappoint that Director is passed.

Subject to the Act, the Company may, by extraordinary resolution, remove a director before the expiration of his period of office (without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract of service between the director and the Company) and, subject to the Articles of Association, may by ordinary resolution, appoint another person instead of him. The newly appointed person shall be subject to retirement at the same time as if he had become a director on the day on which the director in whose place he is appointed was last appointed or reappointed as a Director.

A Director shall be disqualified from holding office if:

- (a) he ceases to be a director under the provisions of the Act or he becomes prohibited by law from being a Director;
- (b) he becomes bankrupt or makes an arrangement or composition with his creditors generally;
- (c) he is, or may be suffering from mental disorder in certain circumstance;
- (d) he resigns his office by notice in writing to the Company;

- (e) in the case of an Executive Director, his appointment as such is terminated or expires and the Directors resolve that his office be vacated;
- (f) he is absent from Directors' meetings for more than six consecutive months and the Directors resolve that his office be vacated; or
- (g) he is requested in writing by all the other Directors to resign.

No person shall be disqualified from being appointed or re-appointed as a Director and no Director shall be requested to vacate that office by reason of his attaining the age of seventy or any other age.

There is no requirement of share ownership for a Director's qualification.

Amendments to the Articles of Association

Subject to the Act and the Memorandum of Association, the Articles of Association of the Company can be altered by special resolution of the members.

Winding-up

If the Company is wound up, the liquidator may, with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution of the Company and any other sanction required by law:

- (a) divide among the members in kind the whole or any part of the assets of the Company and, for that purpose, set such values as he deems fair upon any property to be divided and determine how the division shall be carried out between the members; and
- (b) vest the whole or any part of the assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of members as the liquidator shall think fit, but no member shall be compelled to accept any assets upon which there is a liability.
